

Yan Suryana's Shows Abroad

Antara

DENPASAR - An Artist from Ubud, Yan Suryana, had received many offers to present his paintings abroad. Mr. Suryana said, "a few countries offered me to show my works in their countries this year such as Germany and China but I haven't decide about it yet."

Mr. Suryana explained that he have to finish a few paintings before he can carry out an International show outside Indonesia. "Actually, I still have many paintings but those offers need to be considered and prepared," said Mr Suryana who was born in bandung but have been staying in Ubud for years.

Mr Suryana successfully held a few painting exhibitions abroad. His works were sold out when Mr Suryana performed a show in Pomona Cultural Centre, New York for two months.

Mr Suryana's works have been collected by museums and collectors from all around the world. Almost 300 of his certified paintings spread in almost every country in Asia and Europe.

Since 1990, Mr Suryana had certified his paintings to ensure the authenticity of his work. The paintings searched by the collectors are the one that shows Balinese art and culture.

Legong Keraton Dance

138 x 138 cm

One of Yan Suryana's paintings. This picture is taking from www.ubud.com